TO BENEFIT EAST SIDE

CITY MANAGER WATSON THINKS
EXTENSION OF P. E. RAIL-ROAD WILL HELP THAT SECTION

"I don't think there is much doubt," said City Manager Watson, "that the extension of the Pacific Electric track to the Childs' tract can fail to benefit the East side of the city. It is well known that the advent of a railroad stimulates and develops the place through which it passes. There is also the certainty that the line will extend to Tropic before long, opening up another section, and still further stimulating the growth and prosperity of the East side.

"It is all part of the evolution of Glendale. Those who have watched the growth of the city know that as the old farmer said of the tree, 'It is growing while you are sleeping.' The silent development of a city is a remarkable thing. It is like the growth of a child. While the parents are still looking on their hopeful offspring as a child, behold the child has become a man or a woman and then their eyes are opened and they know it.

"The granting of a franchise to the Pacific Electric railroad for the extension of their line from Glendale and Broadway to the Childs' tract marks a new era in the history of the city. For two years past the Chamber of Commerce has been working to secure better transportation facilities for the eastern section of the city. That has now been made certain. The Pacific Electric will at once proceed to extend its line to the Childs' tract and as soon as possible thereafter will extend its line from the main line at Cypress and Brand, Tropic, to the same point.

"The franchise granted Monday completes the right of way as far as is possible at present. At the point where the line terminates on the Childs' tract the Committee has purchased 2 1/2 acres and deeded that acreage to the Pacific Electric railway for depot and park purposes. The plan is to have the company build their portion of the line along Broadway at once. All the conditions have been complied with by the railroad company.

"The company gets an easement of 23 feet in the middle of the street—in the extended and broadened way. Fifty per cent of the right-of-way to Tropic is now in our hands and the balance will be very easily obtained. When it is all in our possession the railway will be extended to the main line and then will begin a new expansion of life for the East side. It might almost be said that it has begun already for people are anticipating the development of that section of the city and there is certain to be a growth in building and leasing there ere long. Indeed, it has been noticed already that there is more movement and life in the East side than there has ever been.

"The Tropic people are as much interested in this road—the extension of Sycamore Canyon road—as we are, and are co-operating heartily with us."

A PRE-NUPTIAL DELIGHT

The spirit of happiness hovered over a "shower" courtesy of delight and harmonized the expression of sincerest congratulations, when on Thursday afternoon, Miss Clara Midcalf, at 118 South Brand boulevard, presided as hostess, complimentary to Miss Alice Patterson, a popular bride-elect.

Green and white predominated in the artistic decorative motif, green carnations and fern fronds being used in profusion. Guessing contests, games and the sewing of some article for the bride were the guests occupied the afternoon hours, the most clever of these being the Exposition game, at the end of which each person left the room, returning with a suit case. The signal was given to "open," all were empty except that of the honored guest, and upon the unpacking of her own suitcase an even dozen of beautiful hand-painted plates were disclosed.

Miss Midcalf was assisted by her mother, Mrs. A. L. Midcalf, and sister, Miss Anna Midcalf.

At the perfectly appointed supper table cards marked covers for Miss Patterson, the honoree, Mrs. Blake Franklin, Mrs. John Lyons, Mrs. A. L. Midcalf and the Misses Hazel Tyler, Frances Payne, Gladys Justema, Isabel Lyons, Irma Patterson, Augusta Otto, Eva Daniels, Anna Midcalf and the hostess.

GREAT AD FOR CITY

GLENDALE GARDEN SOCIETY
PLANS UNIQUE PUBLICITY
FOR THIS COMMUNITY

One of the greatest advertisements ever planned for Glendale is that of the Free Flower Show, to be held on the 20th, 21st and 22nd of April, under the auspices of the Glendale Garden society. That this admirable enterprise should become an annual event is the ambition not only of the members of the Garden society but also of the city trustees. Believing that a free Flower Show could in course of time become an attraction to Glendale equal to the Tournament of Roses in Pasadena, the city trustees have appropriated $100 towards the expenses of the show. They hope that next year they will be able to appropriate double that amount. Sierra Madre, with a population of but 2000, appropriates towards its annual Flower Show (which is a pay affair) the sum of $200 from the city, and the Merchants' Protective Association donates a similar amount. Thus the people of Sierra Madre contribute $400, in addition to which individual subscriptions from patrons swell the fund. Last year the Spring Flower Show in Pasadena cost $700; the Fall Show cost $1000.

The president of the Glendale Garden society, together with Mr. Morris Caruthers, in an interview with City Manager Watson, went carefully over the actually necessary expenses; by a careful keeping within limits, $200 would be required, with $50 extra to meet unexpected problems which always turn up. Thus with $250 a Free Flower Show can be financed. Of course, this sum can not possibly compete with Pasadena's $700 show. At the same time, it is to be supposed that the citizens of Glendale will band together to make this show an event worth talking about.

A Free Flower Show is an absolutely unique undertaking. Except by the trade and for trade purposes, no free exhibition of flowers has ever been given on the Pacific Coast. Glendale is thus a pioneer, a leader of a movement which should have broadcast results. Who will help boost Glendale? Cannot we all get together and boost Glendale? Owners of property in Glendale want to see an active demand for property; builders in Glendale want to see people flocking here and erecting homes; merchants want to see a house and family on every vacant lot in Glendale, so that the demand for meat, groceries, furniture, clothes, necessities and luxuries of life may vastly increase; real estate men sit in their offices from morning till evening ready to make deals with prospective purchasers and speculators, waiting for that hum of business, which in very truth does not at present exist.

Individual and concerted effort is absolutely necessary in order to make Glendale the city of our dreams. But many of us dream and dream, and sit with idle hands. Every business house, every office, should be the cleanest, prettiest, most attractive place that energy, taste and a little money judiciously spent could well make it. That is the individual effort. Concerted effort is necessary to boost Glendale and to put it vigorously, impressively and permanently before the eye of the public. Suppose we all get together and boost the most unique idea yet started in California, a Free Flower Show. Suppose we all inform ourselves on the subject; suppose we talk about it to our friends here and everywhere; suppose we offer to help in every way possible; suppose we encourage the officers and members of the Garden society by phoning them or writing, or calling at headquarters, 1111 W. Broadway, phone Sunset 1357, to say how much we appreciate the idea; suppose we send in even a little toward the necessary expenses. A patron's list will be opened immediately for $10 subscriptions. Are there 20 people in a population of over 8000, whose purses and hearts are large enough, to donate $10? Are there 40 people who would donate $5? In either case we immediately have the necessary $200. Are there 100 people amongst 8000 who would give each $1? Shall Glendale with 8000 do less than Sierra Madre with a population of but 2000? Residents of Glendale, friends and neighbors, it is up to you.

INSTALLATION POSTPONED

FIVE NEGROES LYNCHED IN GEORGIA

SOUTHERN MOB RAIDS SYLVESTER JAIL AND HANGS
COLORED MAN ACCUSED OF MURDER

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

SYLVESTER, Georgia, Jan. 21.—Five negroes were lynched here today. The men were suspected of having murdered the sheriff of this place. Many thought their guilt doubtful. A raging mob of all classes surrounded the jail last night and demanded that the prisoners be delivered to them. On refusal they broke open the doors, raided the cells and hauled out the five suspects. The negroes were hanged to the nearest tree and their bodies riddled by bullets.

EIGHTEEN MEXICANS TO BE SHOT

BANDITS WHO TOOK PART IN THE MURDER OF THE AM-ERICANS RECENTLY ARE SENTENCED

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 21.—Eighteen Mexicans who took part in the recent murder of Americans were captured by Carranza's troops last night. They were given a brief military trial and will be executed promptly in Chihuahua today. Their execution will be of a military character. It is supposed that they have been shot by this time.

DUTCH CREW IS ALL DROWNED

SCHOONER RANGERMAN HITS MINE AND SINKS IN MIDST OF HEAVY WEATHER

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

LONDON, Jan. 21.—All hands were drowned this morning when the Dutch schooner Rangerman hit a floating mine in the North Sea, off the coast of Denmark. There was a heavy sea running at the time and it was impossible for any help to reach the sinking boat in time to save the crew all of whom perished.

ALLIES PREPARE TO INVADE BULGARIA

FRENCH AND BRITISH WARSHIPS BOMBARD PORT LAGOS FORTS PREPARATORY TO LANDING TROOPS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

ATHENS, Jan. 21.—After having silenced the Port Lagos forts the Allied fleet landed marines on the south coast of Bulgaria. The matines destroyed many new gun emplacements that had been prepared there. The landing party having completed its work went on board the fleet again as a strong party of Bulgarian troops was discovered advancing. This reconnaissance is supposed to be preliminary to the landing of a large body of troops.

SERIOUS FLOODS IN ILLINOIS STATE

SOUTH CHICAGO IS LIKE AN INLAND LAKE—THOUSANDS ARE HOMELESS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

CHICAGO, Jan. 21.—Swollen by the heavy rains of the past few days the rivers of Illinois have poured floods of water into villages and towns everywhere doing an immense amount of damage. South Chicago stands today in the midst of what seems an inland sea. Thousands are homeless. In Joliet alone 1000 people have lost their homes and their property.

RIDICULE STORY ABOUT JAPS IN MEXICO

WASHINGTON AUTHORITIES SAY STORIES OF A JAPAN-ESE ENCAMPMENT NEAR JACUMBA RIDICULOUS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 21.—When questioned here today regarding the story launched in Los Angeles concerning Japanese operations in Mexico prominent army authorities said that there was not the slightest evidence of such a thing. "We have been having reports of this nature for a long time," said one. "There have been stories of Japanese invasion of Mexico by sea, which on investigation were found to be groundless. This story is probably from the same source. The likelihood of there being 300 Japanese encamped near Jacumba is very slight. In any case there could be nothing military in the affair."

GOVERNMENT INDICTS SEVENTYSEVEN

ATTORNEY-GENERAL GREGORY ANNOUNCES PROSECU-TION OF "HYPHENATED" AMERICAN PLOTTERS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 21.—Attorney-General Gregory announced today that the government had indicted 73 individuals and four corporations in connection with the probe that is being made of the numerous "hyphenated" American plots. An immense mass of evidence has been collected and the revelation concerning the blowing up of munitions factories and incendiaryism on ships is said to be highly sensational.

TROPICO CLUB

ENJOY MUSICAL PROGRAM AT CITY HALL—INITIATE NEW PIANO

The most charming and gracious hospitality predominated Thursday at the regular semi-monthly meeting of the Tropico Thursday club, which was held in the City Hall. Through the kindness of the city council this large and spacious room was placed at the disposal of the Tropico Woman's club. At yesterday's meeting every one present, from the gracious president, Mrs. Charles A. Barker, to the little two-year-old girl, who accompanied her mother, was smiling and happy. The usual routine business was dispatched with precision and promptness. Owing to the absence of Mrs. Dora Gibson, the program arranged by this accomplished musician was necessarily cancelled.

Mrs. Charles Millard Turck, chairman of the Music section, introduced Mr. Robert P. Cockbur of Los Angeles, who presented one of the most delightful programs of this club year. Mr. Cockbur, who is a most clever musician, has studied all of the noted grand operas and very cleverly gave "Il Trovatore" on a large Victrola which had been sent out by the Southern California Music company for the occasion. Each number was given, following a brief and concise interpretation by Mr. Cockbur. Among the famous singers whose beautiful voices were heard were Constantino, tenor; Madame Boninsegua, soprano; Oppezzo, tenor; Caronna, baritone; Madame Freeman, contralto. Some of these noted artists have been members of the Boston Grand Opera company. Then there was also Madame Bernacchi, soprano; Colazza, tenor; Cigada and Minalli, baritones; Freve and de Luna, basses, who belong to the grand opera companies of Milan. For two hours members of the club and their guests sat and enjoyed the solos, trios and choruses of this grand opera; enjoyed each number with a keen appreciation that was most pleasing to Mr. Cockbur. There is an old saying, "That as Mahomet could not go to the mountains, so the mountains came to him;" so it was yesterday afternoon. All could not go to "Il Trovatore," but this grand opera had come to the club.

Nearly every one present yesterday afternoon had heard "Il Trovatore," either in the United States or abroad, yet the rendition was pronounced, in some instances even more pleasing, minus the beautiful stage settings and gorgeous costumes. A rising vote of thanks was tendered Mr. Cockbur at the conclusion of the grand opera.

The club has but recently purchased a handsome concert grand piano and during the social hour, Mrs. Charles L. Peckham and Mrs. W. E. Burk rendered several piano selections, as well as accompanied the members who sang a number of songs, "Silver Threads Among the Gold," "My Old Kentucky Home," and those dear old-fashioned songs that all love so dearly. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. W. E. Burk, Mrs. O. P. Martin, Mrs. Edward M. Lynch and Miss Elsie Anderson.

One prominent club woman was heard to remark, following the grand opera of Thursday afternoon: "One reason I enjoyed 'Il Trovatore' this afternoon was that there were no long waits between." Another lady whose husband has a penchant for going out between acts, remarked, "That at our performance this afternoon I did not hear, 'Just excuse me a minute dear'; we were not disturbed by persons passing in and out." Somehow, each member must have known intuitively that grand opera was the program for nearly every one wore a small hat and those who wore their Gainsboroughs occupied box seats—seats at the rear. A most pleasing feature was the correct pronunciation of each name of the artist, as given in each interpretation by Mr. Cockbur.

BASKETBALL GAME

What is certain to prove a most interesting game is the contest in the basketball field between Glendale High School team and the boys of the Alhambra High School. The game will be played on the afternoon of Saturday, Jan. 22, in the High School gymnasium. Both teams are in fine shape and a close struggle is expected. There should be a large attendance at this game. The new gymnasium is comfortably seated and has accommodation for a large audience. Admission 15 cents.

OBITUARY OF W. LEE

UNION SOLDIER, SUCCESSFUL
FARMER AND BANKER, CON-SISTENT CHRISTIAN

Mr. William Lee was born in Greenville, Bond County, Illinois, December 23d, 1832, and passed from this life January 18th, 1916, aged 83 years and 26 days. With his father's family he removed to New London, Iowa, in 1836.

He was united in marriage March 30th, 1862, to Sarah C. Hardin. To this union were born four children, one of whom died in infancy, another, a daughter, Mrs. Charity Gannaway, preceding him fourteen years ago. He is survived by two sons, William W., Edward M., their families, Genevieve, daughter of Charity Gannaway, and the wife, Sarah C. Lee.

Shortly after his marriage he was one of the first to enlist as a soldier in the Union Army, serving for three years in the 25th Regiment of Iowa Infantry, in which he attained the rank of Corporal.

At the close of the war he engaged in the business of farming, until 1873 when he left the farm and engaged in the banking business in New London, Iowa, removing thence to Glendale, California, nine years ago.

He united with the Methodist Episcopal Church in early years, and remained a consistent member until the close of his life. He was a Christian man, of sterling character and consistent life, always thoughtful and considerate of his family and his friends, highly esteemed by all who knew him. He sought to instill these principles into the lives of those near to him.

During the last few months of his sickness he expressed to his family a willingness and readiness to answer the final summons when it came, and it came while he slept, surrounded by his loved ones and he passed on seemingly entirely unconscious, into the haven of peace.

He was the last of a family of twelve brothers and sisters to answer this summons. Three of these died within the past nine months. All, we trust, are now a reunited family.

There were present with the family at the funeral some of the sons and daughters of these same brothers and sisters, whose thoughts mingled in the memories of some of the sterling traits which made up the characters of the individual members of this now reunited family.

The funeral was held at the Jewel City Undertaking parlors at 2 p. m., Thursday, January 20th, 1916. The services were in charge of Rev. B. D. Snudden, pastor of the First Methodist church, assisted by Rev. C. R. Norton, himself a comrade and chaplain of the G. A. R. Post of Tropico. Of unusual interest was the fact that there were present three members of Mr. Lee's own Company K, 25th Iowa Infantry. The music was sweetly rendered by Messrs. C. D. Lusby, Owen Emery, Ralph L. Lusby and Dr. C. R. Lusby. There was a profusion of beautiful flowers.

A large company of relatives and friends gathered with the family to pay their last tribute to the memory of the departed one.

CUPID AGAIN VICTOR

Mrs. Kathryn Bennett of 128 North Kenwood street, announces the engagement of her daughter, Emma Kathryn Bennett, to Ernest Bennett of Phoenix, Arizona, secretary-treasurer of the Bennett Lumber company at Phoenix, and prominent clubman. The interesting news reached here last evening by wire, as the formal announcement of the betrothal was made at a large social function in the Arizona city, presided over by an aunt of the bride-elect, Mrs. E. J. Bennett, with whom Miss Bennett has been visiting for the past five months.

Miss Bennett is expected to return home next week, which means the selecting of the trousseau and all plans will be arranged for the early summer nuptial.

BY MISS ALICE FRANK

Glendale was well represented at the "Little Theatre" last evening, the occasion being the appearance of advanced pupils from the Egan School of Dramatic Art.

Miss Alice Frank, a local member of the younger set, made two appearances. In the one act given from the play "Barbara Fritchie," Miss Frank played a "straight" and proved herself quite a delightful "Laura," and girl chum of "Barbara."

In "Saint Cecelia," Miss Frank played "Bridget," a very clever part, and here she proved her excellent capability for character roles.

LIVE STOCK IN CALIFORNIA

Horses have declined $4 per head in value since last year and the number in the state has decreased from 503,000 to 493,000. There are 4000 fewer mules in California than last year, the number being 70,000. The value of mules has declined $10 a head, being $110. Milch cows number 568,000 compared with 541,000 a year ago. The value per head has decreased from $72 to $69. Other cattle have increased from 1,480,000 a year ago to 1,550,000; but the value has decreased from $55.33 to $53.90. There are 50,000 fewer sheep in the state than last year, the number being 2,450,000; but the value has increased to $5.00 a head. Swine in the state number 947,000 compared with 877,000 a year ago; but the price per head declined from $10.50 to $8.40.

BREEDING HABITS OF MOSQUITOES

It was noticeable during the past heavy rains that there was a sudden development of mosquitoes in Glendale. Not that the numbers of that objectionable insect were great but that the rains brought them out. Ordinarily the mosquito is a negligible quantity in this city; but let a heavy rain come and there will be an appreciable development of the malaria-carrying insect.

Water is absolutely necessary for the development of the mosquito. On the desert, one of the great compensations for an excessive heat is the fact that there are no mosquitoes. Life on the desert would be intolerable were those pests to be found there. The mosquito, however, cannot breed unless there is water. The female mosquito will ordinarily deposit her eggs in the smallest receptacle where there is water to be found. Rapid water is not favorable for breeding mosquitoes. Therefore great care must always be taken to see that running water is kept free of weeds so that it may not afford places where there is opportunity for the breeding of this insect. It is well worth notice in view of the recent rains that overflowed places are the best of all breeding places for mosquitoes.

Mosquitoes are plentiful in New Jersey because there is marshy ground there. Grand Island in the Niagara, as is known to those who are acquainted with its swampy interior, is an ideal breeding place for a specially vicious kind of mosquito. The northern regions of Wisconsin and of Northern Michigan produce this cheerful singer in such numbers as to make even the mildest and meekest of humanity wonder what purpose they serve.

Perhaps the best of all breeding places for mosquitoes is Alaska. After the snow melts on the tundra that open country is one vast collection of pools of water, stagnant, and just warm enough to be ideal breeding spots for the anopheles eggs which have rested comfortably in a temperature of 60 degrees below zero and are ready to hatch out the moment June comes in. The "wrigglers" then appear in millions. The miners of Seward peninsula swear that the Alaskan mosquitoes bore holes in the 5-gallon kerosene cans and drink the oil and there are not lacking those who will swear to the truth of the story that tells of a swarm of mosquitoes flying away with a 20-horse-power boiler. These stories are merely indications of how bad the mosquito plague is in those arctic parts.

However, though 60 degrees below zero cannot kill the mosquito he can be easily dealt with by draining the grounds that he favors as breeding places and by covering the breeding pools with kerosene oil and thus preventing the larvae from coming to the open air. They then die in the water.

Wherever there is stagnant water after the recent rains it should be attended to. It should be permitted to run off or should be filled up with sand and if there should be anywhere throughout the State breaks in irrigation ditches and overflowed lands they should be attended to at once. In this way the malarial fever which is sometimes a menace in otherwise desirable spots may be easily destroyed.

BIRTHDAY ANNUAL GREETING

January 21, 1831—85—January 21, 1916

Tick, tick, the moments move, the hours to make,
Deftly to form the days, the hours move on.
And these, in forming years, their places take.
Thus hath it been e'er since Creation's dawn,
Through all the cycling years by Him controlled,
Since by His hand the mists were rolled away;
When order from vast chaos was unrolled,
And evening and morn made that first day.

Moment by moment the vast oceans' bed
Was by omnipotence scooped out and plowed;
By moments yonder mountain raised its head
Until it glistened far above the cloud;
Tho' myriads of years exhausted be
In forming Nature's wonders grand, sublime,
The growth of cycle, or of century,
Are products of the passing moment—time.

The moment measurement of time must tell,
In common case inside a century;
The tick, tick system suits me very well,
And busy is it "marking time" on me.
Tick tick marked weary, anxious hours that day—
Ticking the moments of that winter morn,
And time has ticked industriously away.
Years 85 since date when I was born.

One moment at a time is all I claim—
Thanks, that today, both hope and faith are strong;
Goodness and mercy every day the same
Demands a happy, cheerful, thankful song.
And when His presence I am called to seek,
Strength may I have until the last to raise
My voice, though feeble, while I try to speak
Some word, or in some song, His name to praise.

LITERARY SECTION

The Literary Section of the Tuesday Afternoon club is arranging programs for two delightful and especially interesting programs, to be given in the near future.

"Immigration Day" program will number the reading of very interesting papers, discussions on same following. This meeting will take place at 2:30 o'clock on February 1, in the home of Mrs. Frank Grosvenor, 1421 Burchett street.

February 8th is the date set for a clever and interesting afternoon. Announcement in full to be given at an early date.

GOSPEL IN SONG

The gospel message was given in song by Mr. Paul, last evening at the Presbyterian church. He sang two gospel solos. Miss Carmichael and Miss Engle sang a beautiful duet. The chorus choir led the congregation in several devotional hymns. The message Dr. Pratt brought was from the text, Rev. version, "Go out and constrain them to come in."

"God is not intending that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance." Many incidents were given proving that Christians by their lives could and did constrain others to come to Christ. A wayward son in a distant city felt the power of his parents' prayers and turned aside into an alley to pray. He also felt it his duty to return home, so boarded a freight car and beat his way back. When he got to his home he found the house dark and upon inquiry he learned that meetings were being held in the country church and he knew his father and mother would be there. He slipped into the back seat in time to hear the invitation. His parents were already at the altar pleading in prayer for their wandering son. The love of God in them constrained him and he went forward to kneel in prayer and ask forgiveness for his sins.

An invitation is given to all to attend these services.

G. H. BARAGER, who for 7 years conducted the Glendale Furniture Store, has again opened the store, at 608 W. Broadway, in the Hotel Gray block. Former patrons and all new ones will be given a cordial greeting.

SUGAR REFINERY IN CORCORAN TO REOPEN

VISALIA, Jan. 21.—Edward Bush, who was in the city from Hanford recently, stated that the Corcoran Sugar Refinery, which has been closed several years, would be opened to handle the crop of sugar beets for the 1917 season. He stated that the contract had been signed for the reopening of the mill and while he was not at liberty to make known the name of the firm or syndicate which is at the head of the movement and has agreed to reopen the mill, he declares it is a very reliable concern and capable of handling the mill in a most satisfactory manner.

Mr. Bush reports that a careful survey of the plant and country finds everything in splendid condition. Nothing has been found lacking in the entire plant, the engineering work being perfect. He also declares that since the first of the year there has been much land reclaimed and the ranchers there are anxious to go into the enterprise once again. Much acreage has also been planted in Kern county, close to Corcoran, which will be used in this mill.

INLAND WATERWAYS ASSOCIATION

The Third Annual meeting of the Inland Waterways association of California and a special congress under its auspices, will be held in the Palace hotel, San Francisco, Monday and Tuesday, Feb. 21-22. The discussions will center on the general topic, "Control and Utilization of the Waters of California." The State Water Power Conference is at work on the problem in a comprehensive way. Chambers of Commerce have the right to appoint delegates.

ENCOURAGING THRIFT IN CHILDREN

A practice fast gaining in popularity with thoughtful parents is that of starting a Savings Account for their children.

Such accounts can be opened in the child's name or in the parent's name "in trust" for the child.

The wisdom of this is evident. The child is encouraged to save, and deposits made regularly quickly accumulate to a material sum. We solicit accounts of this nature and pay interest at 4 per cent per annum.

OLD CUSTOMS IN MACEDONIA

The National Geographic Society has recently issued a bulletin describing some of the peculiarities of the mountain people in Macedonia. It says that while these people are rather inhospitable to the stranger, they have some curious ways which entertain the visitor almost as much as a performance of comic opera at home.

Most of the men of Macedonia wear skirts; some are like ballet skirts, some more like Mother Hubbard skirts. The Jewish men there wear wonderful skirts made of coarse materials, in brilliant shades. It is really difficult to tell the men from the women.

Macedonian peasants are fond of ornaments. The women spend long hours weaving and embroidering articles to be sold at the neighboring town markets, and with their earnings they buy brass jewelry, belt buckles and bracelets, the buckles often being 10 inches square or larger, and the bracelets sometimes weighing more than a pound.

In the theaters of Macedonia the audience pays according as it is entertained; between the acts the actors come down from the stage and go about among the people to take up a collection. The leader of the band comes first, then the leading lady followed by the entire cast. The actors are usually Armenians and the plays comedies.

THERE IS NO FAILURE

There should be no such thing as failure. There is a point where some men give up, quit, and lie down. Failure is the end of effort.

War does not end with one battle. Business is not built by one stroke. Failure does not mean final, unless you accept it as the final. The biggest and the best men in this country have "failed" once, twice, and many of them a dozen times; but they never give up, and for this reason they never really fail. The point is, don't give up.

You think you have trouble. You feel you are about to fail. Trouble! You don't know the full meaning of the word "trouble."

Suppose you were in the position that your neighbor is down the street. Go out on the walk and watch the people pass by. See how many you would like to change positions with. Most of them have kicked a hat with a brick under it, but they continue to limp along and smile.

Did you ever notice that the tide turns when it reaches its highest point? And it is so with trouble. Just when you feel you can't hang on any longer, this is the time to hang on.—The Silent Partner.

MATHEMATICALLY SPEAKING

"What is the plural of man, Johnny?" asked the teacher of the small pupil.

"Men," answer Johnny.

"Correct," said the teacher. "And what is the plural of child?"

"Twins," was the unexpected answer.

Is the gopher in your garden or lawn taking a vacation or laying off on account of sickness?

Church, in the auditorium of the Central avenue school, at 8 p. m. on Friday, January 21st, 1916. ABOUT SPRING FASHIONS

BY MARGARET MASON

(Written for the United Press)

The owner of the Fashion Shop is very low with gripe. The cashier has bronchitis. The buyer has a nip. Of plain old influenza, while the salesgirl has the pip; The model's mighty busy with A very active nose. And yet the window's full of hats Of straw, and Springtime clothes.

NEW YORK, Jan. 21.—In the east you stand with your feet in the slush and snow and gaze at the flowery array of straw bonnets and cotton frocks in the gayly trimmed shop windows. You can almost smell the violets and the budding leaves and between sneezes you murmur hoarsely: "Spring is almost here." But alas! Spring is far distant and the misleading shop windows only show the spirit of preparedness on the part of the shop keepers. It is true that you glimpse a straw hat occasionally on an early head, but one straw doesn't make a springtime any more than one swallow makes a drink. The recent motor show called out many spring modes. One stunning model was done as to body, in a smart serge suit of castor hue. A distinctly new top of absinthe green bamboo straw graced her head in the form of a cloche turban appetizingly encircled with one apple, one lemon, one orange and a bunch of pearl grapes. Castor, by the way, is the newest color for spring. It vies with the suits of white serge for Southern wear and tops the new spring boots in chic rivalry with white. Pink and blue in combination is another favored spring color scheme that has crept from under the surface popularity as lingerie tints, to surface wear in frocks and hats. Lovely muslins and cotton materials for one piece frocks are barred in pink or blue and sprigged in either forget-me-nots or rosebuds, distractingly. Gather ye roses while ye may and tuck 'em and ruffle 'em and smock 'em too and the result will be a duck of a dress, as quaint as an old fashioned picture.

For we are still to be old fashioned this spring to be new fashioned, and the new spring silks as well as the cottons are quaintly colored and patterned in mid-Victorian manner. The spring hats continue to climb skyward even as their winter kin and high crowns and lofty arrangements of wings, bows and flowers distinguish them. Taffeta is a close rival of straw as a hat material and quaint little bonnet shaped or cloche hats of taffeta are trimmed in old fashioned ruffles of the same. Taffeta hats faced in straw and straw hats faced in taffeta add variety; and two colored straws woven in check design in plain sailors of snug turban shapes are beginning a checkered career in these bleak months of wind and snow on which not even a checked straw hat can put a check.

TEN THOUSAND FATHERS AND SONS DINE TOGETHER

CLEVELAND, Jan. 21.—More than 10,000 fathers and sons are expected to sit down together at tables in a hundred Cleveland churches tonight in the biggest "father and son day" ever celebrated in this country. Invitations were sent to every father and son in the city. Fathers who bring the most sons will be the guests.

VALLEY VIEW

B. Swell, wife and daughter Viola, who have been living at 1513 Hawthorne for several months, moved to Bakersfield Thursday.

The flood of the last few days got in its work on the streets of Valley View, as usual. Pacific avenue was badly cut up and at its junction with Fifth street a yawning canyon appears. Cherry street has little left but its name. A Niagara falls was in evidence during the storm, with a gorge below it and an exposed water pipe representing the suspension bridge. Great deposits of sand and crushed rock were made at the lower ends of Hawthorne and Ivy Sts.

A new cesspool 6 feet in diameter is being dug at the Pacific avenue school grounds.

B. E. Wilson of 1628 Vine street was seriously ill with stomach trouble the first of the week, but is up again.

Valley View still holds its own in the building line. Vine, Colorado, Fifth and Ivy all have new buildings in progress.

KINGS LOOKS FOR $10,000,000 CROP

A $10,000,000 harvest is the expectation of the grain growers of the lake bottom lands in Kings county for this year. The 1915 harvest totaled $9,000,000, and the acreage yield was twenty-two sacks to the acre.

There is at present a heavy movement in sowing and the season will see the development and cropping of much reclaimed land. For the crop of 1915 there were some 180,000 acres sown to grain, and it is estimated that this will be increased for the 1916 crop to at least 200,000.

"Some men," said Uncle Eben, "put in their lives kicking at nothing. Dar's dis much to be said for a mule. If he's interested enough to kick, he's willin' to go to de trouble of takin' aim."—Washington Star.
